

Permission use

Contributed by Oshea Davis
Saturday, 16 December 2006

All materials are Oshea Davis copywrite.

You have permission to quote me for articles, websites, scholarly, church, and ministry purposes without having to ask my permission. All I ask is that you include (copywrite Oshea Davis, <http://www.osheadavis.com/>) You may quote part or all of the content.

You my link to my website without having to ask my permission as long as it is in good intention.

You may quote and post an entire article at your web site if you and your website are somewhat Doctrinally close to my beliefs.

If you quote something from one of my books I ask you please give the name of the book and year. (Copywrite Oshea Davis book name year )

If you are going publish anything in book or magazine I ask you would please ask my permission first.

You do not have my permission to quote me under any circumstance if you trying to defame me or take me out of context and willfully distort my intentions.

Thank you, Oshea Davis

If you have and inquires please email at the Contact page.

